TO A.S.

The Government of India, Ministry of Agriculture, have forwarded a draft of amendments to the Edible Oils Grading and Marking Rules, 1939, under the Agricultural Produce (Grading and Marking) Act, 1937 with the request that any suggestions or objections which this Government may offfer or may be received from any person may be sent to them before 10-3-50. The Director of Agriculture who was asked to offer his remarks, states that he has no objections to the draft amendments and that as the notifications refer to an improved design of the labels and marking of specifications they can be approved. A draft reply to India is submitted for consideration.

2. The case may be circulated to H.M. (Agri) for approval.
